unique experiences

Visiting Hwange National Park is an added bonus, considered by some to be Africa's best-kept secret, with significantly less crowds than some of the continent's more popular parks. In Botswana visit curious meerkats who will come right up to you and possibly clamber over you in the Ntsetwe Pan.

that special African touch

After the ultimate bush experience, why not spend a few days discovering rare marine wildlife and three unique aqua-ecosystems ready to be explored by kayak, tinny boat or snorkelling at Rio Azul in Mozambique.
